

Check-list to record good audio in Audacity

1. Script need to be ready before recording and detailed
2. Find out a less noisy and closed place to record
3. Turn off fans and air conditioners, use curtains or thick cloth to cover windows
4. Don't use computer which makes noise
5. Keep your Mic at-least 15cm away from your mouth
6. Use good head phones –
 1. jacks are working fine
 2. Mic input is working
 3. Headphones should support audacity or any other audio tools
 4. Input level should be less than 100%

{NOTE : <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=hUe9I7f4lyE> Watch this video twice to configure your headphones with windows10 computer}

7. Do test recording to check quality. Satisfy yourself before final recording